M★A★S★H Comes To Appomattox

On Saturday, March 22, 1975, the citizens of Appomattox will have the privilege of viewing life in a zany army surgical hospital during the Korean war, when the senior class of Appomattox County presents M*A*S*H, a two-act comedy by Tim Kelly.

Based on the novel of the same name M*A*S*H depicts the crazy heroics of those incorrigible army surgeons, Hawkeye Pierce and Duke Forrest. Radar, Hotlips, Colonel Blake, and the rest of the M*A*S*H gang get in on the action, and hilarious conflicts arise.

M*A*S*H is a combination of comedy, tragedy, romance, excitement, and reality. It is a warm story which will lighten hearts and bring tears to the eyes of the sentimental.

Members of the class of '75 have been working for several weeks to make the play a success as entertainment for the community and as a major fund-raising project for the benefit of the senior class.

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Joyce Sweet, Miss Brenda Waldron, and Miss Patsy Butler, both cast and crews have devoted themselves to the production of M*A*S*H.

A matinee is planned for the students of ACHS on Friday, March 21. The major presentation of M*A*S*H will be Saturday, March 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the new ACHS auditorium. Tickets are available from senior ticket salesmen, various local businesses, and at the door. Cost of tickets is $1.00 for students and $1.50 for adults. Children under six years of age will be admitted free.

The senior class of ACHS anticipates a successful presentation of M*A*S*H. Citizens of the community are urged to support the class of '75 and, at the same time, experience an enjoyable evening of entertainment. M*A*S*H is the first play to be presented in YOUR new high school, and it should prove to be a production that will be remembered in years to come.
